

Advanced Death Investigation

This class was very helpful as they have discontinued classes locally for us. So being able to go on line to complete these classes has proved helpful. Difficult. It seems that the classes are designed for someone with a specific knowledge base prior to starting. I do not have a lot of background in this yet and so it took a lot of extra research. This is a good thing though.